From the A275 take the turning adjacent to the Rainbow Pub. Turn right at the bottom of Deadmantree Hill, signposted to Barcombe. Follow the lane into the village where you will come to a mini roundabout. Take the first left to Newick and Spithurst. Follow the lane for approximately one mile. Along the route you will cross a bridge, drive past the turning to The Anchor and continue up a hill at the brow of which you will see a drive to Knowlands Farm on your right, opposite which is a group of houses on your right called Mount Pleasant. Count approximately 8 further houses on your right, the first of which being a white weatherboarded house with a picket fence. After the seventh or eighth house you may see a telegraph pole with two red triangles on it pointing to the drive of Burtenshaw Farm. Turn right up the drive; you will see a Sussex Barn on your left after which continue around to the left into the farm yard. Drive all the way to the end where you will see a parking area on the right. There is a field gate at the end of the yard to the left of which is a small gate in the hedge through which you should enter and follow the gravel path to the right; at the end of which you will see the studio.

From the A26 take the turning at Clay Hill to Barcombe Mills. Follow the lane all the way to the mini roundabout at Barcombe Cross. Take the right exit signposted to Newick and Spithurst. Follow the lane for approximately one mile. Along the route you will cross a bridge, drive past the turning to The Anchor and continue up a hill at the brow of which you will see a drive to Knowlands Farm on your right, opposite which is a group of houses on your right called Mount Pleasant. From Newick, take the road to Barcombe. Landmarks you will go past are Newick Park, Sutton Hall and Bradness Gallery. Continue for about another mile. You will pass St. Bartz church on your right. Now follow the houses on your left. You will pass Meeching, Quaker Cottage and Spithurst Cottage. The next left turning is a concrete drive to Burtenshaw Farm. You will spot it after a 40 mile an hour sign and a telegraph pole. Turn up the concrete drive where you will see a Sussex barn on your left and continue round to the left and all the way to the end of the farm yard. There is a parking area on the right. You will see a field gate at the end of the yard to the left of which is a small gate in the hedge through which you should enter. Follow the gravel path to the right down to my studio.
